International Day of the Girl

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 64/145 of 18 December 2009 and all relevant resolutions, including the agreed conclusions of the Commission on the Status of Women, in particular those relevant to the girl child,

Recalling all human rights and other instruments relevant to the rights of the child, in particular the girl child, including the Convention on the Rights of the Child,[1] the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women,[2] the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities[3] and the Optional Protocols thereto,[4]

Recognizing that despite progress achieved, discrimination and violence against girls and violations of their human rights still persist, and that intensification of efforts is therefore needed, and recognizing also that the empowerment of girls is key in decreasing discrimination, violence and poverty, and in promoting and protecting the full and effective enjoyment of their human rights and that
